

I am wholly opposed to the efforts of the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) that has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law in a proceeding before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC).

This challenge is unjustified and without merit. The citizens of this state fought hard to eliminate procedures such as this-WE DON'T WANT UNWANTED PHONE CALLS!